

J.C. Britton Park is the cornerstone of Clarendon County's park system.

The 15-acre sports complex is a popular venue for hosting national, regional, state and local baseball and softball tournaments.

Thousands of area folks flock to the park yearround to enjoy its picnic shelters, playgrounds and athletic fields as well as the park's youth and adult programs. The park's walking and biking paths are also popular.

Clarendon County is also home to two additional parks: Taw Caw Park in Summerton and Walker Gamble Park in New Zion. These parks feature additional softball and baseball fields for additional tournaments and the county's youth sports programs.

The county's three parks feature covered shelters, playgrounds and restroom facilities which make them perfect for birthday parties, reunions, church socials and an afternoon of fun.

The Clarendon County Community Center hosts recreational basketball games and various indoor classes and activities including martial arts, dancing, fitness, weight training, youth golf and more. The Center also has a well stocked canteen.

Manning, Summerton and Turbeville offer visitors a variety of antique shops and boutiques as well as restaurants, fast food establishments and hotels.

The beautiful, serene shores of Lake Marion are only a short distance away enticing visitors with an abundance of activities for the entire family.

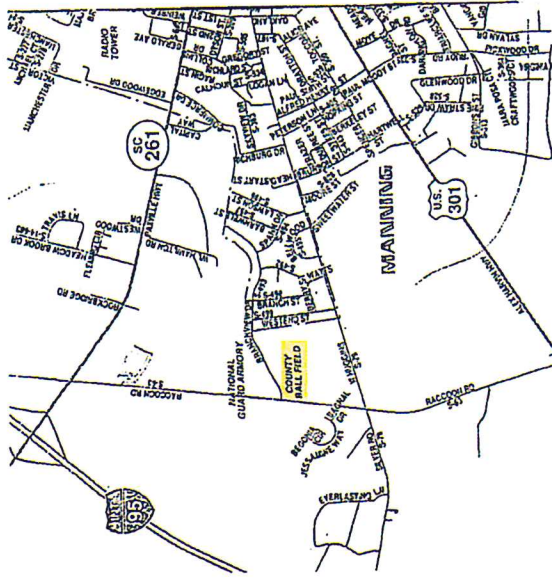

Welcome to Clarendon County a fantastic place to visit and a wonderful place to live and raise a family.
